The Band That Plays the Blues
Rare Films from the Los Angeles Jazz Institute Archive

The Woody Herman Alumni Band
Directed by Michael Berkowitz with Special Guest Ken Peplowski
The Los Angeles Jazz Institute often presents unique concerts that celebrate landmark events in the history of big band jazz. This concert celebrates the 1946 Carnegie Hall concert and will feature much of the music from the original performance. Two extended works were premiered including Ralph Burns’ Summer Sequence and Igor Stravinsky’s Ebony Concerto. Those works will be performed in their entirety along with other first Herd classics such as Blowin Up a Storm, Bijou, Wildroot and more.

- One Night Stand: Charlie Barnet Vs. Woody Herman
  Battle of the Bands

  In 1949 Charlie Barnet’s powerhouse big band squared off against Woody’s brilliant second herd in a battle of bands for the ages. It took place at the Rendezvous Ballroom in Balboa Beach and was broadcast over the Mutual broadcasting network. This special Sunday Brunch event features two all star bands, side by side in a re-creation of that historic event. Barnet called on his latest charts like Bop City and Claude Reins while Woody hit back with Four Brothers and Early Autumn. This is one you won’t want to miss.

- Jeff Hamilton Trio

  The CSULB Jazz Orchestra plays the arrangements of Alan Broadbent and Gary Anderson
