ABOUT THE

Los Angeles Jazz Institute

The Los Angeles Jazz Institute houses and maintains one of the largest jazz archives in the world. All styles and eras are represented with a special emphasis on the preservation and documentation of jazz in southern California. Many artists personal collections are being preserved at the Institute including the archives of Howard Rumsey, Bud Shank, Gerry Mulligan, Shorty Rogers, Art Pepper, Bob Cooper, June Christy, Pete Rugolo, Johnny Richards, Ken Hanna, Dr. Wesley LaViolette, Jimmie Baker and Sleepy Stein.

The Jazz Institute actively uses the materials in the archive by maintaining a busy schedule of outreach activities including concerts, festivals, broadcasts, publications and the release of important recordings on compact disc. The Institute is housed at California State University Long Beach. The Institute is used by teachers, scholars, students, musicians, independent researchers, the media and the industry.

BONUS EVENT

WEDNESDAY,
SEPTEMBER 28, 2005

Full Registrants Only
7:30PM

Jazz Themes From The West
An All-Star Ensemble performing music from a number of Motion Pictures which featured music written by an array of West Coast Legends.

Including music from
Shorty Rogers' The Wild One,
Andre Previn's The Subterraneans,
Johnny Mandel's I Want to Live,
Bud Shank's Slippery When Wet and
Barefoot Adventure and more . . .

In our continuing effort to pay tribute to the brilliant artists who have been significant figures of the Los Angeles Jazz Scene, we are pleased to announce Jazz West Coast 3-Legends of the West.

Legends of the West is a musical celebration of both the musicians and the behind the scenes people whose innovative explorations created a unique jazz scene here on the west coast.

In addition to 17 concerts, there will also be film showings, panel discussions, photo exhibits and special presentations where stories of the West Coast Jazz Scene will be told by the artists who created it.

I hope you will plan to join us.

Sincerely,

Ken Poston
