The Los Angeles Jazz Institute houses and maintains one of the largest jazz archives in the world. All styles and eras are represented with special emphasis on the preservation and documentation of jazz in southern California. The archive consists of over 150,000 recordings in all formats including several hundred hours of unissued radio broadcasts, interviews and live concert recordings. The archive also contains books, magazines, films, photos, music, research materials, memorabilia, and original artwork.

Many artists personal collections are being preserved at the Institute including the archives of Howard Rumsey, Bud Shank, Gerry Mulligan, Shelly Manne, Art Pepper, Bob Cooper, June Christy, Pete Rugolo, Johnny Richards, Woody Herman/Bill Byrne, Sleepy Stein, Jimmy Valentine, Ray Avery, Omar Clay, Jimmie Baker, and more.

The Institute also houses personal items from the estates of Stan Kenton, Charlie Barnet, Artie Shaw, Henry Mancini, Johnny Mercer, Wild Bill Davison, Benny Carter, Albert Marx, C.F. MacGregor, Clinton Rowner and Sid Weiss. The Jazz Institute actively uses the materials in the archive by maintaining a busy schedule of activities including the production of two major jazz festivals, The Los Angeles Jazz Orchestra, The Collegiate Neophonic Orchestra of Southern California, JazzWest Radio Productions and The Lighthouse Record Company.
